LOGAN

“Officer Bill Logan has got to be one of the most dedicated and dependable officers that has ever worked for the N.C. School of the Arts Campus Police. Logan always comes to work ready to perform his duties even in adverse weather or when he is not feeling well. He truly loves the school and would not hesitate to risk his life in order to save the life of one of the members of the campus community.”

“When alumni return to visit the school, the first person that they ask about is usually Logan. He has always been respected and admired by the students at the N.C. School of the Arts. It is almost as if they consider him their father away from home.”

— Ben Sutton, Chief of Campus Police

Officer Billy Ray Logan has been working for the N.C. School of the Arts since August 10, 1970. He knows our campus, its buildings and its history better than anyone else. He has spent many days and nights watching over us and protecting us. He is always willing to help, give you some advice or just listen if you need to talk.

Officer Logan was born in Yadkin County, NC. He began his career in a law enforcement in 1965. He worked as a security officer for the State Merchant Patrol. Five years later, he began working at NCSA, and on September 5, 1972, he received his police commission.

He has completed many hours of police related courses over the years including annual firearms and CPR training.

I, personally, think that Logan is one of the most loved and respected members of our campus. Talking to him has helped me through a lot of hard times. He helped my friends and me when we were chased across town and onto campus by two cars full of crazy guys, and he's always there to cheer me up. I really appreciate everything he's done, and I know I'll never forget him. Thanks for everything, Logan!

YEARBOOK STAFF

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

for being yourself, a truly inspirational person. Jeffrey, for being possibly the nicest guy I've ever met. Stuart, for the long talks, friendship and loyalty. Joe, for growing on me and making me understand how to let live. Ryan, for the good times, laughter, fun and friendship. Eric, for all those intelligent late night talks. John, for believing in me when I really needed it. Jim, for making me laugh through MS at Juan. Zuri, for your humor all day, everyday. Carissa, for being the single most artistic person I've ever met. Georgia, for the talks, love, laughter, good times and emotions. Carrie, for teaching me about tact, emotions, and friendship. Emilie, for putting up with my humor, love that diamond. April, for always being there with that great sense of humor. Amy, for all those honest talks, Oreos, and lessons of life. Holly, for forgetting cliques, being cool, and performing my piece. Jamie, for the Debutantes, arguments, jokes and laughter. Jenny, for the late night Nutz talks, friendship and laughter. Maggie for unconditional love, friendship and humor. Erin for just being you— the coolest baby bal ever. And of course Gillian for your quick wit, honesty, intelligence and morals. I love each and every one of you guys and hope we never lose contact, remember the good times we shared.

OK, that's enough of that; now for the yearbook thanks . . . I would like to thank: Lauren Schepker, Doug Patterson, April "I love you" Moore, Cranford Johnson, Anthony Dowell, all the people in PR (Clay, Twyla, Marla and Nancy), Bob Daye, Dr. Noble, Ms. Lawrence, Jostens, Alan Aycok, Charlie Buchanan, Steve Matteson, Lennie Cohen, Sarah Turner, Karen Knott, Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Stomkin, My Parents, Chancellor and Mrs. Ewing, Ben Sutton, Campus Police, The School of Dance, The Multitudes of Photographers who took Pictures for this book, and of course the staff, without them . . . if would have taken me at least another three weeks . . . Just kidding, there would not be a book without them. As I did last year I stress that you, the reader help out next year, we could always use your help. Finally I leave you with a quote from a good friend,

"Forward is the only way to go!"—Dude Man

—Chaz Ballish, Editor

In September 1992 I auditioned, was accepted, and came to NCSA. All of this happened in about three days. You probably can not even imagine the shock I was in on that first day of school. I had never formally studied ballet before I arrived here, nor had I ever met a VA, D&P, or even a musician. Suddenly I was thrown into a pool of stylin' hair, funky clothes, and very individualistic personalities. I repeatedly asked myself, "How should I act? What should I do?" It took until recently to answer these questions for myself. You see the school I went to was one of those prep schools where everyone wears "Polo" or some other brand name that is certainly just a name. We all acted like each other, answered questions with what we thought others wanted to hear. We were all brought up to be clones, memorize this . . . study that . . . wear this . . . be cool . . . do what everyone else does!!! It was bull!!!

At NCSA I learned many, many valuable life lessons. But the thing that I just realized, the most important lesson I ever learned in my life is simply this . . . BE YOURSELF! NCSA is the kind of place where everyone is accepted for who and what they are. This school consists of 700 true individuals. Some people don't know who they are quite yet, but I assure you of this: there is not a freer place on this earth to let you be you.

At this point I have to thank my family, without them I would have never made it through this year. They are the best friends a person could ever imagine having. Thank you: Nick, brother, for being closer than I could ever imagine a friend could be. Chris, for teaching me to accept myself for who I am, and to love myself for me. Jason, for inspiring me artistically and emotionally. Jarred,
